INTRODUCTION TO THE MAJOR

The German major provides students with the knowledge, experience, language fluency, and analytical skills necessary to incorporate German culture and German studies into the career. The major offers a large selection of courses in literature, linguistics, philosophy, psychology, history, film, and business, along with opportunities to study abroad.

Students are challenged to gain fluency in the German language, read works by major German thinkers in their original language, and venture abroad to German-speaking countries to embrace new cultures. The German undergraduate program provides students with the language fluency, cultural knowledge, academic experience, and analytical skills necessary to attend graduate school, enter the job market, and be global citizens who are culturally aware and critical thinkers.

ADDITIONAL OPTIONS

• Already have an intended major? Consider adding German as a second major or minor.
• To declare the German major or minor you must successfully complete GERMAN 2.
• Students can enroll in upper division German courses taught in English while they are starting to learn the language.
• The department also offers GERMAN 1-4 during the summer.
• Please contact the Undergraduate Advisor for more information.

AMPLIFY YOUR MAJOR

• Showcase your German skills through cabaret performance in GERMAN 102A.
• Apply for a FLAS award to support your language study.
• Immerse yourself in German language and culture with study abroad.
• Enroll in the GERMAN 113 Capstone Project and work with a faculty member to synthesize what you have learned in the major.
